Hi Naima,

1. I would not be forwarding it in Kingdom Foundation's name. I simply know of some people who might be better suited to fund this type of project.

2. Whether you register as an NGO is your decision. That is not the main criteria for KF funding but it was the first reason that stopped the process of evaluation. In evaluating any project, I require at least 6 months to be able to answer your question if it is a project the KF would consider funding.

Mrs. Angawi,

2 questions:

1. May I please know if you will helping and forwarding our material in your own name, or in the Kingdom Foundation's name?
2. Should we get registered as an official organization, will the Kingdom Foundation re-consider it's position, or not? Getting registered as a non-profit in Belgium is a question of 1 day.

Please let me know before you engage in contacting your colleagues in the other foundations

Thank you greatly for keeping the communication open between us.

Dear Naima,

From you email below, I sense that you are frustrated regarding the fact that you had to complete all aspect of the grant application form when the reason for denial was that you are not an official organization. Please note that in order for Kingdom Foundation to consider any proposal, the applicant must complete the grant application form. In addition, the application was sent to you October 20, in which time things may have changed.

However, your point is well-taken and I will, in further correspondences with other organizations, stipulate that no informal organizations will be considered from the start.

I will forward your proposal to my contacts at OCHA and anyone else I feel would be interested. I will wait for your confirmation that I am to send the proposal that you sent me, in case there are any sensitive materials that you wish to omit.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Halla Angawi

Mrs. Fouad,

Thank you for your prompt replies. You could have informed me earlier about the fact that Kingdom Foundation's position regarding start-ups. It was specified in the letter of 19 September 2007 in which is mentioned that we are an informal organization at the moment.

Thanks also for mentioning the OCHA and for lending a hand in that respect. Any further help is very welcome, so please, if there is something you could help us further with, we take it with both hands.

Thank you again and best regards,

Dear Ms. Mouali,

Have you considered taking your proposal to the Office of Coordination for Humanitarian Affairs (OCHA)? They have an online Financial Tracking System and if anyone is interested in this type of project, I could either forward for you or give you some contacts.
